By phone: 0800 015 5035

If you cannot settle your complaint with us, you may be entitled to refer it to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

8. Are we covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS)?

RBS is a member of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). The Scheme can pay compensation to customers if they are eligible and a regulated firm is unable to pay claims against it, usually if the firm stops trading or is insolvent. Compensation limits apply depending on the type of claim:

Compulsory insurance (e.g. third party motor): 100% of the claim, without any upper limit.

Non-compulsory insurance (e.g. home and general): Maximum 90% of the claim, without any upper limit.

General insurance advice and arranging (for business conducted on or after 14 January 2005): Maximum 90% of the claim, without any upper limit.

Most retail consumers (this includes private individuals and some small businesses) are eligible under the Scheme. For further information on the conditions governing compensation and details on how to apply please refer to the FSCS at www.fscs.org.uk
